Mary Harris Case. 115 Pardon Yesterday. Cotton Claims—Changes in the Treasury Department, Etc.

Washington, July 13.—Dr. Nichols, Superintendent of the Government Insane Asylum, was recalled by the prosecution. In the Mary Harris case, he has today expressed the opinion that at certain periods between the time that she was arrested and the killing of N. K. Burroughs, she was sane, and he now catechized in explanations on that subject, repeating that the homicide was of insane origin. Rev. Dr. Burroughs, brother of the deceased, was put on the stand and testified positively to the letters inviting a meeting at an assignation so well known in his brother's handwriting. Miss Harris had called upon him, in Chicago, about the horrid of these letters, and during this late interview Doctor said: "Miss Harris, I ask you whether, in long time that my brother has been acquainted with you, he has ever said anything dishonorable to you, that justifies you in entertaining such a suspicion of him?" To which she replied that he had not, continued with considerable feeling to say that always been her trustiest and best friend, and never said a word or done an act which was not the highest honor. The trial will probably end to-day.

The Department takes the occasion to express its full appreciation of your views to the service of those who have been associated with you in the efficient blockade of the coast and in the work of capturing the rebels and securing the neutrality and supremacy of the Government in the Insurgent States."*
